Student Code of Conduct

The St. Peter's School Student Code of Conduct applies to all students who are enrolled in the school. Once you join the School you are expected to share the responsibility for creating an environment in which everyone can learn and enjoy the academic and social life of the School. All St Peter's School students are required to conduct themselves in a positive, inclusive and professional manner at all times. St Peter's School asks that you please abide by the following rules:

- You must respect School property and other people's belongings.
- You must only eat and drink in the designated areas. Eating and drinking (except bottled water) are not allowed in the Library and the Laboratories..
- You must have consideration and respect for everyone else in the School and ensure you are polite and courteous at all times. This includes respecting others' race and religion; gender; sexual orientation; disability; age; social background and role within the School. You must not harass staff or students for any reason or in any way. Harassment can include bullying, insulting comments, offensive behaviour, jokes, threats and giving people unwanted attention.
- You must move about the learning areas, studios, offices, hallway, car park and grounds in an orderly fashion.
- You must take care to act safely and not put yourself and others at risk. If there are special safety requirements related to your studies you must comply with them.
- You must never start, or join in, any physical violence or aggressive behaviour. Any act of violence or aggression can lead to you being immediately suspended.
- You must never start, or join in, anti-social behaviour, which includes behaviour which makes anyone else feel unsafe or which harms anyone. Being under the influence of any substance does not remove your responsibility for your behaviour, and is not an excuse for unacceptable behaviour.
- You must ensure that you comply with the rules, regulations and policies of St Peter's School at all times whilst a student. Failure to do so would normally be deemed a breach of our rules and regulations. A breach of our rules, regulations or policies constitutes misconduct.

The School Code of Conduct is there to protect everyone. If you do not follow these rules you may be subject to disciplinary action, which could lead to your expulsion from the School.
